LOCATION

Wellingborough is a well-established, thriving market town with big plans for the future.

Situated approximately 12 miles east of Northampton and 20 miles north of Milton Keynes, the town benefits from excellent road communications via the A45 dual carriageway linking to the M1 at Junctions 15, 15a and 16. Furthermore, the A45 links the town to the A14 Thrapston Interchange with an average journey time of less than one hour to Birmingham.

The town also benefits from a Midland Mainline rail link to London St Pancras (approximately 50 minute journey time) and to Nottingham and Derby to the north. Wellingborough train station is less than 1/2 mile away.

Further expansion of Wellingborough is now in hand with the release of some 300 hectares of land to the east of the town, where initially some 3000 new houses will be constructed, together with some 110 hectares of employment land. This expansion will see Wellingborough increase in size by some 30% over the next 10-15 years.

The location of Auckland House on the Embankment, will remain a prominent position close to the initial phases of Wellingborough's expansion and conveniently midway between the Midland Mainline rail station and access onto the A45 dual carriageway.
